

FOFOLA E FALA KAE TALANOA E KĀINGA

TONGAN FAMILY VIOLENCE PREVENTION TRAINING PROGRAMME

NGA VAKA
O KĀIGA TAPU

Fofola e Fala kae Talanoa e Kāinga concept is fundamental to the Tongan cultural practices to help Tongan people build safe and healthier families. The programme was borne out of the Ministry of Social Development suite of Family Violence Conceptual Frameworks known as Nga Vaka o Kāiga Tapu.

This FREE programme focuses on the values that underpins Fofola e Fala kae Talanoa e Kāinga concept and its significance as a solution to prevent family violence. Both English and Tongan languages will be used to ensure your knowledge and experience is shared to enhance the discussion.

This training will strengthen practitioners professional practice and also support our community at large within the context of family violence.

Entry is open to practitioners and community leaders, including community members who may engage with Tongan families to prevent family violence.

The programme will take place over 3 days:
Thursday 11 February: 6pm - 9pm
Friday 12 & Saturday 13 February: 9am - 4pm
Waikato, Venue TBC

Facilitated by Rev Saane and Penisimani Langi

Please refer to the table below for those who should attend:

1	Tongan practitioners working in family violence in the social and health services including other Pacific practitioners in mainstream providers
2	Tongans who may support/influence (or be in a position to support/influence) those affected by family violence, as part of their community roles (e.g.: youth work, community, sports, church work etc)
3	Tongan professionals (e.g.: doctors, nurses, teachers, ECE providers) who are not specialists in family violence but may be interested in learning more about the application of laws, theories and tools to support family violence prevention in their areas of work
4	Mainstream providers who deliver services and programmes to Tongans and other Pacific peoples affected by family violence
